Global Systemic Anthropology, the Contemporary Crisis and the Reconfiguration of the World, Again

21st

is a series of lectures and seminars sponsored by the Mellichamp Professors of Global Studies (Janet Afary, Michael Curtin, & Jan Nederveen Pieterse) and the Orfalea Center. The series, with two or three speakers each quarter, will focus on themes and issues of the global 21st century.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 28th, 2010
4:00 p.m.

MOSHER ALUMNI HOUSE,
ALUMNI HALL

JONATHAN FRIEDMAN is a distinguished professor of anthropology at the University of California, San Diego and Directeur d'études, EHESS, Paris. Arguing for the necessity of a global systemic perspective in understanding the contemporary situation, Friedman will speak on a global anthropology of contemporary crisis and the failures of the globalization framework to deal with the phenomenon.
